INGREDIENTS
Bavarian Blue Gin
Freshly brewed barley water
Freshly squeezed lemon juice
Homemade pilsner syrup
Ice optional

TASTING NOTES
Nose:
Dried citrus and malted barley

Taste:
Inspired by everyone's childhood, nostalgic lemon barley beverage. This concoction hits your first with notes of malt and barley followed by lemon notes of cherry & pilsner sweetness

Finish:
If you're instead, while sipping on this wild pattern, the Blue Gin from Sigworth decides to introduce its clarity to the mix with a slight hint of cherry and spice

So now we know, when life gives you lemons, you add barley and blue gin

RECOMMENDED HOME SERVE
Enjoy any day & serve with a lemon wedge & some barley bits

GLASSWARE
Highball glass

BEST OCCASION
Everyday, if not, your other day

BEST ADVICE
Keep refrigerated, shake well before consumption. Consume before next consumed date

INGREDIENTS
Cognacier Cognac
Amaretto Liqueur
Red Dates, Grand Longon
White Fungus, Gingko Nuts
Large Egg, Sesame, Agar, Agar, Pearl Barley, Pandan Leaves, Gula Melaka, Rock Sugar

TASTING NOTES
Nose:
Pungent notes of pandan and barley with aromatic, subtle of coffee beans couple with nuttiness and red dates

Taste:
This sweet traditional Singapore drink has the right level of flavorful longan sweetness and third quenching notes of nuttiness

Finish:
What set this Gao version apart from the traditional Gao is the old world cognac with notes of almost smoky cinnamon and sweet notes having hot fresh peas and gummy bears

RECOMMENDED HOME SERVE
Serve deep chill for extra thickness. Pour consecutively a small and enjoy with a spoon. (Serve ice optional)

GLASSWARE
Small porcelain bowl

BEST OCCASION
Perfect for a nightcap or as a dessert after that late-night bender meal
